Brief Summary

Research project activity carried out by the department of Economics on various economic and social problems and the local as well as national and international issues for the postgraduate students in the Department of Economics. At the initial stage of the academic year every teacher allotted the students to guide them for their research project. All the students distributed among the total number of teacher of the department. At the end of academic year we conduct research project presentation and collect the physical copies of the project. Total 11 students have completed their research and submitted the physical copies of the project. Local problems, economical and social problems as well as national or international issues have taken as a topic for research project.

Outcome:

1. Students were able to understand the concept of research and the research design.
2. Students understood the data collection method.
3. Students learned to tabulate and analyze the data.
4. Students learned to derive the conclusion and recommendations from the research analysis.
